

My “Interpretation of the Four Children” Homework Assignment

(To be shared after “The Four Children” at your family’ seder)

Directions:

1. Choose a picture of the Four Children (from pp. 24-33 in your red Haggadah) that was not discussed in class.
2. Looking at the picture, give possible interpretations for who’s who – the wise, the wicked, the simple, and the one who does not know how to ask a question. Add a one to two sentence reflection on which child you were last year and which one will you be this year (wise, wicked, simple, one who does not know how to ask).
3. Your interpretation should be one to two paragraphs in length, typed, double-spaced and must include as much detail as you can provide. Remember to cite in your paragraph the picture and page you are interpreting. Also, please photocopy the page and staple it to your interpretation.
